Groundbreaking Celebration for new S. Lebanon Early Learning Center set for December 17

A groundbreaking celebration for the new South Lebanon Early Learning Center will take place on Thursday, December 17, 2009 at 3:00 p.m. at 10 N. High Street in South Lebanon, OH. A reception will follow.

The $2.3 million building will house the new early learning center which will provide jobs, aid in the economic growth and development of South Lebanon, and provide high-quality child care and educational services to children under 5. The accredited center will offer early childhood education programs and child care. Also, the new center will include multipurpose space that can be used for family and community activities. The new center – scheduled for completion in October 2010 – will be located at the intersections of Forest and Section Streets in South Lebanon.

Federal, state, and local government representatives, community supporters, donors, local businesses, and the public are invited.

Renderings of the new center are online at www.wccsi.org . To RSVP for the groundbreaking or for more information, contact the Program Development Office at 513-695-2206 or write via e-mail at velh@wccsinc.org.
